Legal Protection for your business customers

Anyone running their own business has a great deal to keep them busy. In addition to ensuring that the business is successful they may need to employ staff, keep on top of HM Revenue & Customs demands, adhere to health and safety legislation and a variety of other demanding requirements. Legal Protection provides reassurance and support to business owners if something were to go wrong.

Our commercial cover includes BusinessCare, our comprehensive support service. It provides your customers with telephone and online advice on key business legislative and regulatory issues including: access to solicitors, barristers, employment and health and safety specialists, guidance resolving common business issues and an e-magazine "Employers' Monitor" providing the latest news on employment and health & safety matters.
