

PRESS RELEASE

Prison Officers Association (Scotland) Appoints FirstAssist

London June 2008...FirstAssist Legal Protection has been appointed by the Prison Officers Association (Scotland) as its new legal protection provider, with effect from 1st June 2008. The deal which was secured following a head to head with the current provider, continues a trend of rapid growth in this market by FirstAssist.

Commenting on the win, Andy Glynne said, "This is testament to the quality of our service and claims handling process."

"The Association was looking for a provider that could combine the appropriate levels of legal protection cover with a high quality claims handling service. We were able to demonstrate that we could meet both their insurance requirements and exceed their expectations on the administration and processing front".
